SLOCUM BENEFITS OPPOSED.

Appropriation for Victims No. Forthcoming. It is the belief of the House Committee on Appropriations that no obligation, equitable, legal, or moral, rests upon Congress to make appropriations for the relief of the survivors of the Slocum dis aster, in New York Harbor, or the heirs of those who lost their lives in the burning and grounding of the steamer General Slocum. A resolution to this effect was passed by the committee vesterday. A request had been made that the committee insert in the sundry civil bill an item providing an appropriation of $1,000,000 for the relief of the Slocum survivors and the heirs of those who lost their lives are the relief of the survivors and the heirs of those who lost their lives are the relief of the survivors and the heirs of those who lost their lives are the relief of the survivors and the heirs of those who lost their lives are the relief of the survivors and the heirs of those who lost their lives are the relief of the survivors and the heirs of those who lost their lives are the relief of the survivors and the heirs of those who lost their lives are the relief of the survivors and the heirs of those who lost their lives are the relief of the survivors and the heirs of those who lost their lives are the relief of the survivors and the heirs of those who lost their lives are the relief of the survivors and the heirs of those who lost their lives are the relief of the survivors and the heirs of those who lost their lives are the relief of the survivors are the relief of the survivors and the heirs of those who lost their lives are the relief of the survivors and the heirs of those who lost their lives are the relief of the survivors are the relief of the survivors and the heirs of the relief of the survivors are the relief of th on the ill-fated occasion.
